

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
18 – 19 MAY, 2023
VILLA LANNA, PRAGUE

Organized by the Prague Forum for Romani Histories
(at the Institute of Contemporary History) in partnership with University of Alabama at Birmingham and Romani Studies Program at the CEU in Vienna

the others benefits European past centuries Eastern Europe
historical memory similarities 1930s feature Atlantic populism political movements landscape internal enemies racism
new perspectives central
IN TRANSATLANTIC CONTEXTS: PAST AND PRESENT sexual minorities mass followings immune comparisons anti-Jewish continuities racial rejection parallels immigrants anti-Romani people risks American anti-Black transnational twentieth century resigned

18 MAY

1:30

Welcome

1:45 – 3:15

Keynote Session

Chair: Kateřina Čapková

Angéla Kóczé: Anti-Roma Racism as a Socio-Historical Consensus: 2008–2009
Neo-Nazi Murders of Roma in Hungary

Jonathan Wiesen: US Racial Violence in the German Imaginary

3:15 – 3:45 Coffee break

3:45–5:30

Panel I: Transnational Xenophobia

Chair: Jonathan Wiesen

Ann Ostendorf: Anti-Romani Political Racism in the Nineteenth Century
United States

Tayla Myree: Remembrance to Reparations: A Study of the Strategies towards the Recognition of Atrocities by Roma and African Americans

Tina Magazzini: Racism or Xenophobia? Tracing the Category-making of Racialized Minorities across the Atlantic and their Consequences

19 MAY

9:00 – 11:15

Panel II: The Holocaust And Holocaust Memory

Chair: Helena Sadílková

Christopher Molnar: Holocaust Memory, Racism, and the Roma Refugee Panic
in Reunified Germany

Cristina Teodora Stoica: The Politics of Antiziganism and its shaping of Romania's Holocaust Historical Memory

Mariana Sabino Salazar: The Politics of Memory: Romanies in Mexican and Brazilian Holocaust Museums

Justyna Matkowska: Pogroms on Roma and Sinti in Nazi-occupied Poland
during World War II

11:15–11:45 Break

11:45–1:30

Panel III: Discrimination And Its Legacies

Chair: Martin Fottta

Sunnie Rucker-Chang: The Enduring Impact of School Segregation in the United States and Europe

Michelle Kahn: USA From Nebraska to Berlin, Zagreb, and Beyond: How American Neo-Nazis Shaped the European Far-Right (1970s–1990s)

Dezso Mate: Roma LGBTI Movement – The Politics of Alliance

5:00–6:30

Roundtable Discussion hosted by CEFRES, Na Florenci 3

The Politicization of Xenophobia in Transatlantic Contexts

Chair: Angéla Kóczé

Speakers:

Ann Ostendorf

Jonathan Wiesen

Vita Zalar

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
18-19 MAY, 2023
VILLA LANNA, PRAGUE

Organized by the Prague Forum for Romani Histories
(at the Institute of Contemporary History) in partnership
with University of Alabama at Birmingham and Romani Studies Program at the CEU in Vienna

18 MAY

1:30

Welcome

1:45 – 3:15

Keynote Session

Chair: Kateřina Čapková

Angéla Kóczé: Anti-Roma Racism as a Socio-Historical Consensus: 2008–2009
Neo-Nazi Murders of Roma in Hungary

Jonathan Wiesen: US Racial Violence in the German Imaginary

3:15 – 3:45 Coffee break

3:45–5:30

Panel I: Transnational Xenophobia

Chair: Jonathan Wiesen

Ann Ostendorf: Anti-Romani Political Racism in the Nineteenth Century
United States

Tayla Myree: Remembrance to Reparations: A Study of the Strategies towards
the Recognition of Atrocities by Roma and African Americans

Tina Magazzini: Racism or Xenophobia? Tracing the Category-making of Racialized Minorities across the Atlantic and their Consequences

19 MAY

9:00 – 11:15

Panel II: The Holocaust And Holocaust Memory

Chair: Helena Sadílková

Christopher Molnar: Holocaust Memory, Racism, and the Roma Refugee Panic
in Reunified Germany

Cristina Teodora Stoica: The Politics of Antiziganism and its shaping of Romania's Holocaust Historical Memory

Mariana Sabino Salazar: The Politics of Memory: Romanies in Mexican and Brazilian Holocaust Museums

Justyna Matkowska: Pogroms on Roma and Sinti in Nazi-occupied Poland
during World War II

11:15–11:45 Break

11:45–1:30

Panel III: Discrimination And Its Legacies

Chair: Martin Fottta

Sunnie Rucker-Chang: The Enduring Impact of School Segregation in the United States and Europe

Michelle Kahn: USA From Nebraska to Berlin, Zagreb, and Beyond: How American Neo-Nazis Shaped the European Far-Right (1970s–1990s)

Dezso Mate: Roma LGBTI Movement – The Politics of Alliance

5:00–6:30

Roundtable Discussion hosted by CEFRES, Na Florenci 3

The Politicization of Xenophobia in Transatlantic Contexts

Chair: Angéla Kóczé

Speakers:

Ann Ostendorf

Jonathan Wiesen

Vita Zalar